

House Resolution No. 1799

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have made admirable contributions of time, talent, energy, and spiritual leadership on behalf of those elected to serve in the legislative branch of state government; and

Whereas, Ronnie Margason of Jefferson City has faithfully organized breakfasts each week of the legislative session for those officials who participate in John Stormer's weekly Missouri Capitol Bible Study; and

Whereas, Ronnie Margason often prepared the delicious, nourishing meals herself as a way to get the weekly meetings off to a good start every Wednesday at 7:15 a.m.; and

Whereas, the steadfast service of Ronnie Margason to God, the Capital City Christian Church, Brother John Stormer, and the members of the Missouri Capitol Bible Study is to be heartily commended:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to acknowledge with gratitude the worthwhile contributions made by Ronnie Margason to the Missouri Capitol Bible Study and to convey to her this legislative body's sincerest best wishes that her many years of honorable, Christian service have been a blessing for her as much as they have for others; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Ronnie Margason of the Capital City Christian Church.
